CLASS 9: Apparatus and instruments for light current engineering, specifically, the engineering fields of telecommunication, high frequency and regulation, namely, circulators, isolators, absorbers, coaxial and waveguide transmission lines, all in the nature of electronic components, ferrite components for industrial and science purposes and for use in medical apparatus, electronic devices and components in the nature of semi-conductors; electric and physical measuring apparatus and instruments for measuring and processing of radio frequency energy and signals; parts, components and subsystems of apparatus and instruments for the production, transmission, conversion or transduction or for the consumption of electric energy, especially for telecommunication purposes or the transmission of intelligence, namely, circulators, isolators, absorbers, coaxial and waveguide transmission lines for radio frequency, all in the nature of electronic components [;] *, none of the above for power and energy generation devices or systems with the exception of high frequency power and energy generation devices or systems using radio frequency; * parts, components and subsystems for apparatus for telegraphy, telephony, television or signaling with or without wire, and parts, components and subsystems for radio transmitter and receiver and construction kits with or without housings, namely, circulators, isolators, absorbers, coaxial and waveguide transmission lines, all in the nature of electronic components; discrete semiconductors for transmission and receiving applications, sensors for measuring radio frequency power and signals, high-frequency radio receiver, measuring instruments for measuring radio frequency power and signals, hollow electric conductors; waveguides for high power beam delivery, power connectors, waveguide structures for high power beam delivery, cable structures for high frequency applications being structured cabling systems comprised of telecommunications cables and hardware; downloadable software for the simulation and calculation of active devices, like transistors, electron tubes as well as passive devices like circulators or ferrite components; ferrite circulators being electronic components

FIRST USE 1-22-1926; IN COMMERCE 2-14-1999

CLASS 42: Providing online, non-downloadable software for the calculation of active devices, like transistors, electron tubes as well as passive devices like circulators,

REQUIREMENTS TO MAINTAIN YOUR FEDERAL TRADEMARK REGISTRATION

WARNING: YOUR REGISTRATION WILL BE CANCELLED IF YOU DO NOT FILE THE DOCUMENTS BELOW DURING THE SPECIFIED TIME PERIODS.

Requirements in the First Ten Years*

What and When to File:

- First Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) between the 5th and 6th years after the registration date. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. If the declaration is accepted, the registration will continue in force for the remainder of the ten-year period, calculated from the registration date, unless cancelled by an order of the Commissioner for Trademarks or a federal court.
- Second Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between the 9th and 10th years after the registration date.* See 15 U.S.C. §1059.

Requirements in Successive Ten-Year Periods*

What and When to File:

- You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between every 9th and 10th-year period, calculated from the registration date.*

Grace Period Filings*

The above documents will be accepted as timely if filed within six months after the deadlines listed above with the payment of an additional fee.

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see <http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/>.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

NOTE: A courtesy e-mail reminder of USPTO maintenance filing deadlines will be sent to trademark owners/holders who authorize e-mail communication and maintain a current e-mail address with the USPTO. To ensure that e-mail is authorized and your address is current, please use the Trademark Electronic Application System (TEAS) Correspondence Address and Change of Owner Address Forms available at <http://www.uspto.gov>.
